

LEANING ON MY BELOVED

We've desired to walk in His power / But who is willing to pay the price?
We want the glory of the final hour / But few are willing to lay down their life

We have taken the eternal calling / And exchanged it for a bowl of stew
We have used it for our own glory / For the sake of filling up our pews

Judgment must begin with the House of God
Judgment must begin in the House of God

In my weakness will I find Your strength
And experience Your love's great length

(Chorus) I will be found broken
Leaning on my Beloved
I will be found awoken
Leaning on my Beloved
Leaning on my Beloved

We have fallen into grave deception / And we do not even realize
Full of answers / Full of so-called knowledge / But all we really need to know is Christ

We are sleeping Lost in drunken stupor / All He asks is that we watch and pray
But we are caught up while all that really matters / Is to be found ready on that Day

Judgment must begin with the House of God
Judgment must begin in the House of God

There's gonna be a shaking / There's gonna be a waking up / There's gonna be a breaking / If I'm Yours oh God
There's gonna be a yielding / There's gonna be a sealing of / There's gonna be a dealing / In Your jealous love

There will be the perfect radiant Bride
But her heart will not be filled with pride

(Chorus)

We are preaching a different Gospel than His own / And pursuing all our mighty plans
But all our striving is really good for nothing / Cause only that which is of Him will stand

We've united with the spirit of this age / So enraptured with this present life
But through the darkness and through the greatest fire / God will fashion for Himself a wife

Judgment must begin with the House of God
Judgment must begin in the House of God

There's gonna be a shaking / There's gonna be a waking up / There's gonna be a breaking / If I'm Yours oh God
There's gonna be a yielding / There's gonna be a sealing of / There's gonna be a healing / In Your jealous love

(Chorus)

(Outro) Who is this that is coming out of the wilderness / Leaning on her Beloved
Who is this that is rising out of the wilderness / Leaning on her Beloved
Leaning on her Beloved / Leaning on her Beloved
Leaning on my Beloved / Leaning on my Beloved
