

TRIBUTE TO THE MARTYRS

You suffer for the Name
It is not in vain
For to live is Christ
And to die is gain

So endure these trials
For a little while
Because the testing of your faith
Makes you undefiled

(Chorus) You are the sons and daughters of His glory
You are the ones of whom the world's not worthy

You are not alone
You are not unknown
Your fame spreads through eternity
Earth is not your Home

You stand through awful things
Peace and joy He brings
The fellowship of sharing in
His sufferings

(Chorus) You are the sons and daughters of His glory
You are the ones of whom the world's not worthy

(Bridge) Oh that I could kiss your feet
The tears that you cry are bittersweet
Soon your joy shall be complete
That Heavenly place
The brethren's embrace
The Bridegroom's glorious face

Your life is hid in Christ
A precious sacrifice
The Sovereign Lord will avenge your blood
You'll be robed in white

Knowing what God is of
You walk in perfect love
Fear has no place in you
Your reward's above

(Chorus) You are the sons and daughters of His glory
You are the ones of whom the world's not worthy
You are the sons and daughters of His glory
You are the ones of whom the world's not worthy
Oh this world's not worthy
Of the martyrs
